For Spring 2016, The University of Iowa Presents…

EL Bridge Online Workshop:

Working with English Language Learners

For: Licensed K-12 Science Teachers, Math Teachers, and Special Education Teachers in the State of Iowa*

In the past two years, teachers throughout Iowa, including West Burlington, Des Moines, Johnston, Dubuque, Wapello, Washington, Marshalltown, Iowa City, and Cedar Rapids participated in the workshop’s online activities and discussions.

Megan Schaefer, Dubuque CSD, said:

“This class was wonderful. I like that I can turn around and try it right away in my classroom…I think everyone should take it and change their perspective on the ELL population.”

Dates: January 27 through May 10, 2016

Workload: Approximately 3 hours per week, asynchronous (no scheduled class time)

Requirements: Online discussion with fellow teachers, readings & written assignments

Offered by: University of Iowa College of Education

Credit available: One License Renewal credit through AEA PD Online ($25)

For more information or to register for this online workshop, please contact:
The EL Bridge Online Workshop team at el-bridge@uiowa.edu or 319-335-5261

*Elementary teachers with a specialization in one of these areas do qualify. Other interested parties may be given special permission to enroll on a case-by-case basis.