CEUs

CEUs earned will be 3.8 contact hours for psychologists, social workers and administrators, or 0.45 CEUs for nurses. Other professionals may present certificates to their boards for CEUs. Certificates awarded to all attendees.

Driving Directions:

Take I-35 either North or South to Ankeny. Take the Oralabor Road exit #90 and go West. If you are coming from the north, this is a right turn. If you are coming from the south, this is a left turn. After driving about two miles, you will run into South Ankeny Boulevard. Turn right onto South Ankeny Boulevard. Turn left on DMACC Boulevard. At this point you will be on campus. Proceed to Auditorium, Building #6.

DMACC, Highway 69 & Oralabor Rd. Bldg. #6

Target Audience

This educational conference is sponsored by On With Life. The conference is designed for nurses, rehabilitation counselors, social workers, administrators, physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech-language pathologists, psychologists, case managers, and all direct care staff. All interested health care providers are welcome to attend. Please feel free to copy registration form for other interested parties

Objectives

By the end of this session, the participants will learn:

- The health and social consequences of methamphetamine use.
- The common emotional and behavioral symptoms seen with methamphetamine use versus brain injury.
- How humor bonds patients and medical personnel to create a relaxed atmosphere.
- How to be familiar with mood, anxiety, and psychotic disorders.
- To manage specific medication intervention to treat persons with brain injury, both acutely and on a chronic basis.
- To define the use of music therapy to address cognitive, motor, social, and/or psychosocial needs of persons with neurological impairments.

Jerome Greenfield, M.D., Mercy Psychiatrist, Des Moines, Iowa, and Consulting Psychiatrist, On With Life, Inc., Ankeny, Iowa.

Paul Essen, Psy.D., Licensed Psychologist, On With Life, Inc., Ankeny, Iowa.

T. Marni Vos, Motivational Speaker, Lincoln, Nebraska. T. Marni believes we all have a choice about how we perceive the world around us. Humor is one of the wise choices. It helps in the coping and surviving of our day-to-day walk. Humor creates a positive, happy, healthy environment where laughter is not uncommon and people feel good.

Kim Hawkins, MT-BC, Board Certified Music Therapist, University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, Iowa City, Iowa. Kim currently serves as a NICU Music Therapist. She has also provided services in the areas of Behavioral Health, Adult Medical and Pediatric Medical services.
